

Wallace Johnson, of Baltimore county, endorsed, "will not pass."

The resolution in favor of Aquila Smith;

Also, the resolution in favor of Nathan T. Hempston;

Also, the resolution in favor of Ami Clagett;

Also, the resolution in favor of Benjamin Fitzgerald;

Also, the resolution in favor of Patsy Blake;

And also, the resolution relative to the common free schools fund;

Severally endorsed, "assented to," ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Ely presented a memorial of J. M. Roberts and sons and others, praying that an alteration be made in the present mode of punishing convicts in the Maryland Penitentiary.

And also, presented a memorial of William H. Bangs, William F. King and others, praying a change in the Penitentiary system;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Jones, of Baltimore city, presented a memorial of Solomon Powers, Cyrus Gault and others, praying that the Penitentiary system may be altered;

And also, presented a memorial of Joshua Vansant, Isaac M. Denson and others, representing the evils of the present Penitentiary system, and praying that it may be altered or abolished;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Millar, of Charles, chairman of the committee on education, delivered the following report:

The committee on education, to whom was referred the report of the clerk to the commissioners of Allegany county, as relates to the application and distribution of the free school fund of said county, have had the same under consideration, and in considering the report, have also had access to a statement from the Treasurer of the Western Shore, showing the amount of funds transferred and paid over to the levy court and commissioners of said county, and the result of said deliberation is that the report of the clerk of the commissioners of Allegany county suggests a wish for an extension of time, for the purpose of making more perfect his next report. Therefore your committee submit the case with the following order:

Ordered, That the commissioners of Allegany county cause to be made a report to the next General Assembly of